Changes to Kalinga Park pathways

From 25 February 2009, a number of pathway changes and detours will be in place to maintain pedestrian and cycle access during construction of the Airport Link project.

Changes to the pathway network will include:

- a new pathway on the northern side of Schulz Canal connecting Toombul Terrace, Diggers' Drive, Centro Toombul and Sandgate Road
- a realigned pathway, in the Centro Toombul car park adjacent to Airtrain, connecting Widdop Street and the Sandgate Road underpass
- a new refuge island south of the Centro Toombul driveway at Widdop Street connecting the Moreton Bay Cycleway
- a new pathway connecting the Jackson Street pedestrian bridge with Lewis Street
- closure of the Kalinga Park pathway between Widdop Street, Sandgate Road (south of Schulz Canal), Stuckey Road, North Coast Railway, Jackson Street and Diggers' Drive.

Pathway detours will include:

- Jackson Street access to Kalinga Park and Diggers' Drive will be via Lewis and Kalinga Streets
- Stuckey Road access to Kalinga Park, Sandgate Road, Widdop Street and Centro Toombul will be via Kedron Street
- Diggers' Drive and Toombul Terrace access to Sandgate Road, Widdop Street and Centro Toombul will be via the new pathway on the northern side of Schulz Canal.

Note: Date is subject to change due to weather conditions
